

MARSHFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

POLICY NUMBER: 4.340

POLICY TITLE: Political Activity

ADOPTED/LAST REVISION: 6-11-96

Library employees are neither appointed to, nor retained in, service as the result of their political activities and affiliations. Library employees are expected to exercise their right of suffrage as citizens and engage in normal political activities. It is nevertheless, for Library employees best interest, that employees neither engage actively nor attempt, by use of their official positions, to influence the outcome of City election campaigns.
